

Legoland California's
25th Anniversary

Introduce the Article and Key Vocabulary

Talk with students about what they will learn from the article. Introduce vocabulary to them using the descriptive teaching method.

Example: Today we are talking about Legoland California. Legoland California is a resort. That means people can go there to go to parks, stay in hotels, and do many fun things. Legoland California is celebrating it's 25th anniversary this year. That means the resort has been open for 25 years, it is like its birthday. Legoland California is also celebrating adding new things to do to the theme park. It opened a dinosaur themed part of the park, called Dino Valley. They also have a new parade that has a firetruck made of Legos. Do you want to go to Legoland?

Talk About What you Learned

Summarize the article with students and talk about what they learned. Ask open-ended questions to discuss what everyone thought, and to get them thinking about and reflecting about what they read.

Sample questions for discussion:

What did you learn today? What do you know about taking perspective? What is a space capsule? Would go to space on the ship Spaceship Neptune? Why?

Discussion for Comprehension

After reading and summarizing the article with students, use descriptive testing to further discuss the students' understanding of the article. Pose questions in a way that allows the student to answer the question using any word on their device.

Sample Descriptive Testing Questions and responses:

Tell me about the Lego World Parade.	Tell me what Dino Valley is.	What does celebrate mean?
